STATE TREASURER

118 Wade Hampton Office Bldg., Box 11778

Columbia 29211, Tel. (803) 734-2101

The State Treasurer is the “private banker” for South Carolina. He is responsible for the investment, cash management, and safekeeping of the State’s general and restricted funds and the assets of the South Carolina Retirement Systems. The State Treasurer also coordinates all banking relationships for the State; issues all state debt including the payment of and principal and interest on outstanding debt issues; communicates with bonding rating services; and is trustee for abandoned property holdings; the South Carolina Tuition Prepayment Program and the South Carolina College Investment Program.

The Treasurer is Vice Chairman of the State Budget and Control Board. The Budget and Control Board (Agency) is at the core of South Carolina’s State Government, handling functions such as: the South Carolina Retirement System, State Procurement, State Insurance Programs, The Budget Office, State Auditor’s Office, State Human Resources’ Office, General Services, The Budget Office and the State Technology Office.

The Treasurer is a member of the South Carolina Retirement System Investment Commission, which manages the System’s approximately twenty-five billion dollar investment pool. The South Carolina Retirement System Investment Commission’s goal is to maximize the return of the System's assets while safeguarding capital for the System's capital for its retirees.

The Treasurer is the Chairman of the State Board of Financial Institutions. The Board supervises financial institutions under its jurisdiction through the Bank Examining Division and supervises mortgage originators and lenders, finance companies, pay day lenders, and title lenders through its Consumer Finance Division.

The Treasurer is the Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Tobacco Authority. The South Carolina Tobacco Authority administers the tobacco settlement funds. The Treasurer is also the custodian of these funds.

The Treasurer is the Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Education Authority. The Treasurer is also the custodian of the Authority's funds.
